This four-run lead was a pretty heavy handicap, but the Colts started in to play star ball, and with one run in the second, two in the fourth and one in the eighth, they tied the score of the Yankees. It looked then as if there would be an extra inning, but that man Johnson again took it upon himself to do some business, and with Engle on base he lined out a hot liner to left, scoring his teammate and winning the game.

The battle was finished with the same players on both teams with which it was begun, not a single change having taken place in either line-up.

Verbout Pitches Fine Geme.
Verbout was the slab artist for the Jocals, and he pitched a consistent, steady game. The big leaguers got ten hits off his delivery, but the home team took nine off Upham, the twirler for the professionals. He struck out three man and walked four, but this did not prove serious until the very last inning, when Engle was given his base on balls, and he later scored on tenancie hit.

The local squad has made marked improvement in its recent games, and much is expected of the Colts when the regular league season opens. The Rochester team will play Richmond at the park on Monday and Tuesday afternoons.
